

Do You Have a Great Way to Expose Fake Clinics?

WE WANT TO SEE IT.

Enter the Feminist Majority Foundation's Video Contest to Expose Fake Clinics on your Campus

The winning video will be featured on our national website and screened at our national and regional conferences, with an introduction by a celebrity feminist!

Create a short YouTube-style video about the deceptive practices of CPCs. Do you or other students have personal experiences to share? What innovative actions are you taking to get the word out? Get creative!

Deadline for submission: March 1, 2010
Send all videos to Jacqueline Sun, jsun@feminist.org, 310-556-2500

Please note: Surreptitious phone and video recordings inside a CPC or of CPC staff are strictly prohibited. Some CPCs require women to sign confidentiality agreements. These agreements may be enforceable under the law. Make certain anyone featured in your video has not signed one.
